Message from the President

We enjoyed seeing you at our May breakfast meeting and hope our 3 lucky members enjoyed winning gift cards! As always, we are looking for ways to improve our organization. Two immediate changes we are implementing are the addition of small raffle drawings at our trainings as well as a new presence on social media. Spotlight on Adam Ashton

Adam Ashton will be a guest speaker at our next Quarterly Breakfast Meeting coming up in October. Ashton covers state government for The Sacramento Bee, anchoring the newspaper's popular state worker coverage. He joined the newspaper in 2016 after covering the military and local government at its sister newspapers, The News Tribune of Tacoma, The Modesto Bee and the Merced Sun-Star. Ashton has reported on the U.S. military in Afghanistan, Iraq and in Japan on special assignments for The Bee's parent company, McClatchy. He earned regional and national recognition for his coverage of war crimes committed by U.S. soldiers in Afghanistan. CASA Peer Review Program

Peer Reviewer Opportunities!

Would you like to be a member of a peer review team to gain valuable and relevant experiences?

CASA is seeking volunteers to participate in the peer reviews of various government agencies.

As a peer reviewer, you will gain valuable experience and great insight into the best practices of the auditing field. You will also walk away with practical ideas about how to improve your own audit organization's quality control practices.

CASA is currently seeking peer review volunteers for Fall 2018 and 2019. If you are interested in volunteering or having one of your staff volunteer, please send an e-mail to CASA's Peer Review Coordinators at: alma.ramirez@dof.ca.gov or mary.camacho@dof.ca.gov.

Here is what others have to say about the peer review program.

I'd also like to thank CASA for continuing to coordinate the Peer Review program for state agencies. I believe this valuable program helps audit units meet their external assessment requirement, but more than that, I believe it fosters an environment which allows leaders within the State of California audit community to exchange ideas about best practices and to learn from each other. I personally have benefitted both from conducting peer reviews and receiving one.

*Sincerely,
Lisa Negri, Chief Auditor
California Energy Commission*

We hope to hear from you soon!
